Review:

I must say that my experience with Teacher has been exceptionally positive. In a relatively short span, she demonstrated a remarkable ability to convey complex concepts with clarity and enthusiasm, making the learning process engaging and enjoyable.

Documentation

WEBSITE TYPE: Event Website.

NAME: Music Festival Website.

Overview:

This document provides a comprehensive overview of the Music Festival website. The purpose of this website is to promote and provide information about the upcoming music festival, including details about the event, ticket pricing, and the lineup of artists.

HTML Structure:

The website is structured using three main HTML pages:

1. Home Page (`index.html`):Contains general information about the festival, an event overview, and welcoming content.

2. Tickets Page (`tickets.html`):Displays information about ticket options, pricing, and a link to purchase tickets.

3. Lineup Page (`lineup.html`): Showcases the lineup of artists scheduled to perform at the festival.

External CSS Styling:

Styling is managed through an external CSS file named `style.css`. This file is linked to each HTML page to ensure a consistent and visually appealing presentation.
